DR. MARTY LUDLUM

DR. MARTY LUDLUM & KARA GRAY LUDLUM, CPA & OKLAHOMA FD

The only consistent thing in Employment is change. Regulations in a variety of areas are in flux. To be an ethical business manager, you have to be in compliance with all the multiple facets of these changes. In 2024, changes are happening in Religious Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Non-Compete Agreements, and Training Reimbursement Programs (TRAPs). In addition, the presentation will be constantly updated with the most recent issues. If an update occurred last week, it will be in the presentation this week! In this presentation, the attendees will gain knowledge from all the most recent changes in employment regulation and how your firm must adapt and comply with these changes.

101 WAYS TO INCREASE YOUR BOTTOM LINE

DR. MARTY LUDLUM & KARA GRAY LUDLUM, CPA & OKLAHOMA FD

When the economy is faltering, funeral directors need more innovative ideas to boost the bottom line. This game show formatted presentation will cover numerous innovative methods to increase profits in a variety of areas. Attendees will gain ready-to-implement and tested ideas to raise income, lower costs, and increase the funeral home's bottom line.

"EMBALMING & BODY PREPARATION: LET'S STOP DROPPING THE BALL!"

WALLACE P. (WALLY) HOOKER, CFSP, MBIE

Too many funeral homes are 'dropping the ball' and making it easier for families to choose direct cremation, without 'body present' services. Which in part, is a result of previous bad experiences with poorly embalmed and dreadful appearing, publicly displayed bodies. When the public experiences poorly presented bodies, the results are felt by all of us who get it and go the extra mile! It makes us all look bad! By going the 'extra mile' in body preparation, we can create a peaceful and healing viewing experience for the families we serve and the general public. Talented embalmers and facial restorative specialists have the ability to give the traumatically damaged or otherwise difficult cases back to their family one last time... 'whole again' so they can say an appropriate 'good bye'! This is my most popular presentation, designed to encourage, motivate and reaffirm the value and importance of quality embalming, body preparation and the 'final touch'. From the cot to the chapel' and everything in between. This lecture will discuss in detail, pre-injection, fluid selection, solution percentages, injection sites, as well as overcoming common embalming complications. As well as soft tissue repair of the face.

"WHAT YOUR FAMILIES MAY NOT TELL YOU ABOUT YOUR FUNERAL HOME...BUT THE HAIRDRESSER AND YOUR CLERGY WOULD."

WALLACE P. (WALLY) HOOKER, CFSP, MBIE

This fun and upbeat lecture addresses some shortcomings, interesting and often over-looked issues pertaining to our facilities, how we conduct business, how we treat the public, how our bodies look, and what the public, hairdresser, clergy, sales reps, trade embalmers see and observe behind the scenes. Power-point with photos.

GENERATIONAL GAPS, AI AND PRENEED TRENDS

BRIANNE NIEDERMYER

In this presentation, you will learn about the differences each generation brings to the insurance and funeral service professions. This includes each generation's characteristics, what changes their buying habits and how to overcome some of those objections. You will also learn how to use AI, and how each generation feels about its uses. Agents are working with a variety of people every day, and this course will help them connect with each consumer in a more positive way

"PRENEED MOTIVATORS: DISCOVER WHAT MOTIVATES CONSUMERS TO MAKE ADVANCE FUNERAL PLANS"

GREG NORRIS

During this presentation, you will get insights from the latest edition of Homesteaders' exclusive consumer research report, Preneed Motivators. We'll explore the demographics and behavior of people who prearrange, share how people progress through the consideration process and discuss what happens during and after their prearranging experiences. Throughout the session, you'll learn practical suggestions, based on data, for how to strengthen relationships with current client families, connect with new families and leverage tools to grow your business.

MARKETING HOUSEKEEPING: EASY UPDATES FOR ANY LEVEL!

KYLIE SCHILDT, RAAM MARKETING

Join Kylie Schildt, Director of RAAM Marketing, your local marketing guide, as we explore the essential steps to conduct a marketing self-audit for your small funeral home business. Discover how to assess your current marketing strategies, identify areas for improvement, and strengthen your online and offline presence. You'll learn how to conduct a quick customer demographic analysis, benchmark your efforts, leverage digital platforms, and connect with your community. By the end, you'll have a clear roadmap to refine your marketing efforts and ensure your funeral home business continues to provide compassionate services while reaching your ideal audience.
